Here at the Clandeboye Lodge we always like to push the boundaries.

When it comes to Upper Sixth formals we don't believe in the ordinary, the average, the usual. We believe extra-special should come as standard. We go the extra mile to make your money go further and make your evening something really memorable.

How do we do it? Simple. By providing a service with all the stressful bits taken out and the fun left in a package with all those little extras other venues just won't offer.

- When you book your show-around, we'll arrange for a chauffeur-driven stretch limo to pick you up from school and drop you back. We'll take the time to answer every query you have to help you plan a brilliant formal.
- For the girls, we've negotiated an exclusive 20% discount* on ready-to-wear formal dresses at Belfast's leading fashion boutique, Blush – where spacious changing rooms and a mirrored catwalk help create a truly unforgettable dress shopping experience for any Upper Sixth girl.
- For the glamorous event itself, our themed décor features black chair covers, silver bows, clear crystals on black table linen and black star cloth to create a stylish, cool atmosphere, backed up by the latest chart music.
- Last but not least, to break the ice with your fellow table guests, everyone gets a black party bag with game teasers, streamers, poppers and sweets

That's what we call a formal night concept with a difference!

So call our Events Team now on 02891 852500 to arrange for your formal committee's show-around at a venue that takes your enjoyment as seriously as you do!

With best regards

From the Formal Events Team
